A Bill Entitled

An Ordinance concerning
Real Estate Practices - Disclosures - Historic Districts

For the purpose of requiring certain disclosures in order to sell a property that is located in a historic district;
and providing for certain penalties.

By adding

Article 2 - Consumer Protection
Section 14-7
Baltimore City Code
(Edition 2000)

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Laws of Baltimore City read as follows:

Baltimore City Code

Article 2. Consumer Protection

Subtitle 14. Real Estate Practices - Disclosures

§ 14-7. Historic districts.

(a) In general.

On or before entering into a contract for the sale of any real property, the seller must disclose to the buyer in writing whether the property is located in a Historical and Architectural Preservation District as defined under Article 6, § 1-1(f) {“Definitions - Historical and Architectural Preservation District; Preservation District; District”} of the Code.

(b) Form of disclosure.

The disclosure required by this section shall read as stated:

HISTORIC DISTRICT - DISCLOSURE

This property is [] is not [] located within a Historical and Architectural Preservation District.

_____ Seller’s Initials

Before beginning any exterior alterations to a structure located within a Historical and Architectural Preservation District (a “historic district”) the owner of the property and the structure must first secure an Authorization to Proceed (“ATP”) from the Commission for Historical and Architectural Preservation (“CHAP”).

Structures that are located within a historic district are designated as being part of a neighborhood that is of particular historical significance and architectural character.

CHAP is responsible for promoting the preservation of structures located in a historic district under Article 6 {“Historical and Architectural Preservation”} of the City Code.

Relevant excerpts from Article 6 of the City Code establishing the requirements stated above are provided below.

§ 8-2. Building permit required.

(a) Exterior structures.

No person may undertake, cause, or allow any of the following regulated alterations for or with respect to any structure located within an historic district without first obtaining a permit to do so from the Building Official:

- (1) any reconstruction, alteration, or removal of any exterior architectural feature;
- (2) any change in an exterior color, whether by painting or other means;
- (3) any exterior excavation;
- (4) the construction or erection of any exterior building, fence, wall, or other structure of any kind; or
- (5) any exterior demolition.

§ 8-4. CHAP to review.

(c) CHAP approval prerequisite for permit.

The Building Official may not issue a permit for any regulated alteration unless the Commission first issues an Authorization to Proceed.
