INTRODUCTION

The Baltimore Development Corporation (BDC) is reporting on City Council Bill 21-0028, introduced by Councilmember Ramos, on January 25, 2021.

PURPOSE

This Bill proposes to designate the Clifton School, located at 2670 Kennedy Avenue, as an historical landmark: exterior.

BRIEF HISTORY

The Clifton School was built in 1882 and was added to the Baltimore City Public School System in 1888, when the City of Baltimore annexed 26 square miles of Baltimore County. While many of the schools annexed in 1888 were eventually demolished and replaced, the Clifton School is a rare survivor from that period of Baltimore City's expansion.

FISCAL IMPACT

None

AGENCY POSITION

The BDC supports passage of City Council Bill No. 21-0028.
