A COUNCIL RESOLUTION CONCERNING

Opportunity Budget - Next Phase Is Agency Status

FOR the purpose of requesting the Baltimore City Council to support the inclusion of a Youth Opportunity Budget within the Finance Department’s Recommendations to the Board of Estimates and as a crucial component of the Board of Estimates’ recommendations to the Baltimore City Council for approval in the fiscal year 2009 operational budget of the City of Baltimore.

WHEREAS, Throughout the past 3 years of Baltimore City surpluses, City government has established and funded a network of school and community-based programs to keep our children safe and successful, thanks in large part to our Mayor in her advocacy when she served as City Council President and to our current City Council President whose service on the Council included being the Chair of the Budget and Appropriations Committee and a youth advocate; and

WHEREAS, In a down-turning economy, youth programs can no longer stand on the outskirts of Baltimore City’s budget priorities, waiting in vain for surplus funding no longer available; and

WHEREAS, Baltimore City’s Youth Opportunity Budget is zero-based, requesting the same level of City funding and the same “count” of children served as in the current fiscal year 2008 budget, including supplementary appropriations; and

WHEREAS, The youth of our City do require and rely on the basic supports of the Opportunity Budget, including community-and-school-based after school programs, A-Teams, and other relevant supports to youth safety and success; and

WHEREAS, This Council has approved and further urges the addition of fiscal year 2009 funding for the Experience Corps, which the City has supported for the past three years, and of the Peer-to-Peer Enterprise Program; and

WHEREAS, When resources are diminished, the needs of our City’s children increase and must, in fairness and justice, take priority.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE, That this Body supports the inclusion of a Youth Opportunity Budget within the Finance Department’s Recommendations to the Board of Estimates and as a crucial component of the Board of
