The Honorable President and
 Members of the City Council
 City Hall, Room 400
 100 North Holliday Street

5/27/2014

At its regular meeting of September 10, 2013, the Commission on Historical and Architectural Preservation considered the designation of the Enoch Pratt House as a Baltimore City Landmark. This was later introduced as City Council Bill #14-0321.

The Commission reviewed the attached staff report which recommended approval of the designation of the Enoch Pratt House as a Baltimore City Landmark, eight members being present (eight in favor).

If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Laurie Feinberg, Acting Division Chief, Historical and Architectural Division at 410-396-1275.
