A RESOLUTION OF THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL CONCERNING

In Honor of Leah Waller – 2007 Baltimore City Public School System Teacher of the Year

1
2
3 FOR the purpose of congratulating Leah Waller, 1st Grade Teacher, Maree Garnett Farring
4 Elementary School, on being named the Baltimore City Public School System’s Teacher of 5 the Year for 2007, expressing appreciation for her 8 years of dedicated service to the children 6 of Baltimore, and supporting her candidacy for Maryland Teacher of the Year; and providing 7 for a special effective date.

Recitals

8
9 In announcing that Leah Waller, a 1st grade teacher at Maree Garnett Farring Elementary
10 School, #203, 300 Pontiac Avenue, had been named the Baltimore City Public School System’s 11 Teacher of the Year for 2007, the interim CEO aptly commented: “Ms. Waller represents the 12 best and brightest of Baltimore’s teacher workforce. Her achievements are especially notable 13 because she is so early into her teaching career. I am especially excited to have this opportunity
14 to extend my personal thanks for her deep level of commitment to the children of Baltimore
15 City.”

16 Ms. Waller, an 8 year veteran of the Baltimore City Public School System, received a 17 teaching degree in her native Ukraine and continued her education in this country, receiving a
18 Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Education degree in Early Childhood Education from Towson
19 University. She shares her knowledge with other education professionals as a “demonstration 20 teacher” for the Children’s Literacy Initiative and as a mentor to student teachers and new 21 educators.

22 The Teacher of the Year is selected by a Blue Ribbon Committee made up of Baltimore City 23 school officials and members of the Baltimore Teachers Union. As Baltimore City Teacher of 24 the Year, Leah Waller will go on to compete for Maryland Teacher of the Year, the program that 25 brings recognition to excellence in the classroom by educators throughout the State. All local 26 Teachers of the Year are honored by the Maryland State Board of Education. The Teacher
27 chosen as Maryland Teacher of the Year represents Maryland teachers on numerous State 28 committees and advisory boards and addresses a variety of conferences and conventions
29 throughout the 1 year reign. The Maryland Teacher of the Year will be announced at a gala 30 awards dinner in the fall of 2007.

EXPLANATION: Underlining indicates matter added by amendment.
~~Strike out~~ indicates matter stricken by amendment.
