A RESOLUTION ENTITLED

1 A RESOLUTION OF THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL concerning

2 November 2 – Do It Now! Day – In Honor of the Life and Times of 3 William Donald Schaefer – November 2, 1921 - April 18, 2011

4 FOR the purpose of declaring November 2, Do It Now! Day in Baltimore City, an annual 5 citywide day of service and reflection in celebration of the birthday of William Donald 6 Schaefer and in recognition of his indomitable spirit and life of selfless public service that,
7 upon his passing, left his beloved Baltimore a much improved City and its residents aware 8 that City Hall works to serve all; and providing for a special effective date.

9 Recitals

10 The passing of William Donald Schaefer was memorialized by persons of all walks of life.
11 Maryland’s well-known politicians and ordinary citizens gathered one last time this past 12 Wednesday for a memorial service to honor the life of the loveable curmudgeon who altered the 13 sky scape of Baltimore City and changed the way its citizens perceived the role of City Hall.

14 In eulogy, a former Congressman brought both smiles and tears from those assembled and 15 those listening to media coverage from afar, when he recalled: “Don Schaefer was a person who 16 changed politics. He put a human face on it.” A former close aide remarked that he was a father 17 to his aides, determined to pull every “shred of untapped potential” out of them. Baltimore City, 18 however, was his favorite child, and anyone who dared to speak negatively of it did so at their 19 own peril.

20 After a three day send off that began with a tour of the City’s landmarks that resulted from 21 Schaefer’s visionary genius and wove through the neighborhoods that he so truly loved, his 22 casket was escorted to Old St. Paul’s Episcopal Church from City Hall by police color guards, 23 motorcycle units, and a pipe and drum corps where a crowd awaited his flag-draped coffin
24 accompanied by a jaunty rendition of the “Stars and Stripes Forever” – a fitting tribute to a man 25 who served his country in WWII, his City as Councilman, Council President, and Mayor, and the 26 State of Maryland as Governor and Comptroller.

27 For more than 50 years of public service, William Donald Schaefer implored his staff to do 28 their best at what he considered the most important part of public service – to help people. His 29 service memorial “He Cares” : “ To say he was not a typical politician is an understatement.
30 But his populist antics (including wearing silly hats and jumping into the seal pool at the 31 National Aquarium) were designed to engage citizens in their government. And they worked.
32 Tens of thousands of people followed his lead and volunteered at events such as the Baltimore

Council Bill 11-0694

1 City Fair, community festivals, or neighborhood centers. As he left public office in 2007, he was 2 asked how he'd like to be remembered. He summed up his 50 years of public service in two 3 words: "He Cared." William Donald Schaefer cared about helping people."

4 Do it Now! Day pays tribute to a man who for so long poured his entire heart and soul into 5 uplifting Baltimore. To be able to turn his birthday into a citywide day of service to the city he 6 loved more than anything in this world is a perfect tribute.

12 serve all; and providing for a special effective date.
