	Subject:	City Council Bill– 23-0423 City Property – Renaming Cottage Avenue Park to Candy Stripe Park

DATE: September 11, 2023

TO: The Honorable City Council President Nick Mosby
Members of the City Council
City Hall
100 North Holliday Street
Baltimore, MD 21202

FOR the purpose of changing the name of Cottage Avenue Park to Candy Stripe Park. Cottage Avenue Park is a safe haven for the Park Heights community. It has developed the nickname Candy Stripe from the neighborhood children identifying it by its metal dividers painted red and white. The name Candy Stripe has been an ongoing name for over 40 years. Cottage Avenue Park is a place where all community people feel welcomed. Cottage Avenue Park has become a place where all accomplishments are celebrated, and it remains a place where the surrounding communities have appreciated what this green space brings to their lives. Cottage Avenue Park is the place where everyone is known as family.

This coming year, Baltimore City Recreation & Parks will be replacing the aged playground. BCRP is invested in the Park Heights community and is happy to support this legislation.
