Dear Mr. President:

The Baltimore City Youth Commission supports Council Bill 13-0261 introduced by Councilman Brandon Scott.

Students still enrolled in school should not be able to stay out after 11pm during the school year. Commissioners also yield to Councilman Scott's bill which would allow parents and guardians a choice of counseling instead of jail and/or fines.

We have spoken to our peers, and some believe this legislation will not deter youth from committing crime, but most believe that students will be safe if they are at home.

Respectfully Submitted,
