Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Tess Baroody. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Tess Baroody

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Nisita Dutta, a resident of Baltimore, a Johns Hopkins University alumni, and an incoming University of Maryland School of Medicine and NIH Oxford-Cambridge MD-PhD student. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

I chose to stay in Baltimore for this next chapter of my life because I believe this city has the unique combination of incredible resources and so much opportunity for change. Please, use the public health data from Johns Hopkins and the medical initiative from University of Maryland to HELP the people of this city by limiting funding to the BPD at the hearing on 6/12. Rather, invest in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health to have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety in this beautiful city I now call home.

Best,
Nisita Dutta

My name is Lais Santoro. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

I'm a student in the city and I truly want my new Baltimore community to be as safe and just as possible. Continuing to fund the Baltimore PD is not the answer to that.

Best,
Lais

Dear Council Members,

My name is Robert L. Frank Jr. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,

R. Frank Jr.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Shi Woo Ji. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget, not to mention it is a blatant act of injustice. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety. It is in your best interest, as it is in every individual's, to ensure that marginalized people and communities, specifically black, brown, and poor people and communities, are served to the fullest.

Best,
Shi Woo Ji.

Dear Council Members,

My name is Becky Shade. I am a lifelong resident of the Baltimore area and currently a student at Johns Hopkins University. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Studies have shown that policing, even policing with body cams, is not helpful and does not correlate with safer or better communities. Additionally, social programs do help with these initiatives. Please do your research properly and allocate funds accordingly.

Best,
Becky Shade

Dear Mayor Young, My name is Kara Bauer and I am a BCPS High School educator.

In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. Although the BPD had not engaged in the massively inappropriate behaviors that are occurring on a national level (at least not that I have seen on the news or social media), it is my personal and professional belief that that money should be reallocated and redistributed to better serve the citizens of Baltimore.

I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021. Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Kara Bauer

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Julian Frost. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,

Julian Frost

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Lubna Azmi. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Lubna Azmi
