Burglar Alarms Registration and Regulation - False Alarms

For the purpose of revising the fees assessed to alarm system users for repeated false alarms; altering the number of false alarms within year that will result in the placement of the premises into a no-response status; requiring that alarm system monitors make certain additional attempts to verify the need for a police response; making certain stylistic changes; and providing for a special effective date.

Sponsors: City Council President (Administration), John T. Bullock, Sharon Green Middleton
