Analysis

Background

If enacted this bill would clarify the definition of Single-Family Dwelling Unit in the Councilmember Mary Pat Clarke Tenant Opportunity to Purchase Act (CCB 22-0250). The definition would be the same as the City Building Code – "1-family dwelling" or "single family dwelling unit" means a building that contains only 1 dwelling unit and is used only for that purpose."

Re: Council Bill 24-0485 Tenant Opportunity to Purchase - Corrective Bill

Introduction

The Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) has reviewed City Council Bill 24-0485 for the purpose of clarifying a definition under Article 13, Subtitle 6 "Opportunity to Purchase"; and providing for a special effective date.

If approved by the City Council, this ordinance would delete the definition of "dwelling unit" and replace it with "single-family dwelling unit" and add the words "single-family dwelling unit" throughout the Bill, for the purpose of clarification. If enacted, this ordinance would take effect on the same date that Ordinance 23-275 The Councilmember Mary Pat Clarke Opportunity to Purchase Act, takes effect.

DHCD Analysis

The original Ordinance was intended to apply to all single-family dwelling units. The BFRC defines single-family dwelling units to mean a building that contains only 1 dwelling unit and is used only for that purpose. This amendment would clarify that a dwelling unit does not apply to a unit in a Multiple-family dwelling, thereby eliminating any confusion or ambiguities.

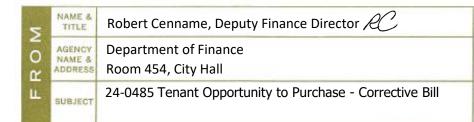

The Councilmember Mary Pat Clarke Opportunity to Purchase Act, as amended, may offer a pathway for additional housing stability for Baltimore's renters, by allowing the renter currently residing in the property the right to buy it on market terms. The enhanced rights of first refusal for tenants may encourage increased homeownership throughout Baltimore.

Conclusion

DHCD respectfully requests a favorable report on City Council Bill 24-0485.

Position: Does Not Oppose

The Department of Finance is herein reporting on City Council Bill 24-0485, Tenant Opportunity to Purchase - Corrective Bill, the purpose of purpose of clarifying a definition under Article 13, Subtitle 6 "Opportunity to Purchase"; and providing for a special effective date.

Background

This is a corrective bill that seeks to clarify the definitions of the recently amended subtitle of City Code, Tenant's Right of First Refusal, which was amended by Council Bill 22-0250. That bill updated subtitle language and required landlords seeking to voluntarily transfer their single-family residential rental property to first offer the current tenant the opportunity to purchase the property. The subtitle details definitions, exemptions, and scope of the policy, as well as required conditions of offers and contracts related to transfer of the property. There were several minor drafting errors that required correction, specifically to differentiate the process for a single-family building and a multifamily building.

Fiscal Impact

This legislation clarifies definitions in the recently amended subtitle of City Code, Tenant's Right of First Refusal. The Department of Finance anticipates minimal fiscal impact for the City from this legislation.

Conclusion

This legislation intends to clarify definitions in the recently amended subtitle of City Code, Tenant's Right of First Refusal, The Department of Finance anticipates minimal fiscal impact for the City from this legislation.

For the reasons stated above, the Department of Finance does not oppose City Council Bill 24-0485.
