A RESOLUTION ENTITLED

1 A COUNCIL RESOLUTION concerning

2 Hire One Baltimore

3 FOR the purpose of requesting the Director of the Mayor's Office of Employment Development
4 to develop and coordinate the Hire One Baltimore campaign to encourage all Baltimore area
5 employers to hire at least one new employee in 2012; to engage the Greater Baltimore
6 Committee, the Baltimore City Chamber of Commerce, the Greater Baltimore Black 7 Chamber of Commerce, the Baltimore Urban League, the Maryland Minority Contractors
8 Association, Inc., the Metropolitan Council of AFL- CIO Unions, Inc., and the United Way
9 of Central Maryland to stimulate maximum participation of their membership, and; to work 10 with the Baltimore Development Corporation, the Baltimore City One-Stop Job Center, and 11 other Workforce Development entities to ensure that Baltimore City jobless residents benefit 12 from the Hire One Baltimore campaign.

13 In March 2011, the new initiative – Hire One Atlanta – was launched. Hire One Atlanta is a 14 public-private campaign aimed at challenging employers to hire at least one new employee this 15 year. Atlanta's Mayor said if each of the region's 150,000 employers hires just one person, 16 150,000 jobs will be created, and the economy will be stimulated by companies hiring the 17 unemployed.

18 The initiative is a metrowide partnership that includes the Atlanta Business League, the 19 Atlanta Regional Commission, the Metro Atlanta Chamber, the Society for Human Resources
20 (SHRM)-Atlanta and the United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta, Inc. All of these organizations 21 have agreed to work with their members, their constituencies, and other organizations to 22 encourage maximum participation.

23 The Impact of Hiring One website reads: "ONE=$100K – Hire one new employee and you'll 24 start a chain of events that can positively impact individuals and our entire economy. According 25 to one analyst, a single new hire can (on average) increase U.S. GDP by about $100,000. The 26 momentum created by the influx of new jobs leads to an increase in consumer and investor 27 confidence. With that comes a new cycle of spending, thus reinvigorating Atlanta's economy and 28 allowing businesses to expand. Now just think of the cumulative effect if a small number of 29 those businesses hired, 2, 3, 5 or even 20 new people."
