Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Liz Donadio. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Liz

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Caitlin Toner. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Caitlin Toner

Dear Council Members,

My name is Evan Todtz, a Mount Vernon resident. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate and frankly disgraceful to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget for the upcoming fiscal year. I urge you cut any proposed increases in FY 2021 from the previous fiscal year and also charge you to support CB19-0379 to authorize the reallocation of funds identified under the Baltimore City Budget to facilitate further divestment in the BPD and reinvestment in social services and education programs, effective in future fiscal years' budgeting practice.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Decrease the Baltimore City Police funding immediately.

Evan

Dear Council Members,

My name is Gaby Nair, and I live in District 11. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to cut funding to the BPD and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

I will be submitting a full written testimony this afternoon with more thoughts to be recorded in this hearing's file. PLEASE VOTE NO ON THIS BUDGET. Cut tactical gear for cops, cut overtime for cops, cut the purchase of chemical weapons, and cut purchase of material that might be used to brutalize my neighbors. Absolutely do not vote YES on ANY increase to the police budget—cut it wherever you can.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Gaby Nair

Dear Council Members,

My name is Brittany Johnstone and I am a resident of Baltimore City District 1 and a school psychologist employed by Baltimore City Public Schools. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021. Baltimore City can anticipate the need for additional funding to BCPSS in the coming years, the time to turn the tide on our bloated budget for BPD is now!

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety. A budget is a moral document and the budget in its current state speaks volumes of the misguided priorities of our City. We cannot continue to allow policing to dominate our City's public investment.

Respectfully,
Brittany Johnstone

Dear Council Members,

In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget when this money should be used to more directly support Baltimore's communities. I urge you to reallocate (or to urge Mayor Jack Young to reallocate) the Baltimore City Expense Budget and shift the proposed increase in BPD funding to social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs/departments such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety. Also, please support CB19-0379!

Best,
Garrett Berberich

Dear Council Members,

My name is Garrett Bowman. In the midst of a pandemic, economic upheaval, and public outcry against police brutality, it is unconscionable to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

It is of the utmost importance for this city to defund the corrupt Baltimore PD and invest in its people, namely the youth and its people of color.

Best,

Garrett Bowman, Baltimore City Resident

Dear Margueritte Currin,

My name is Rita and I am a Baltimore resident. In the midst of this pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it feels more inappropriate than ever to propose increases to the BPD budget from $530 Million to $545 million. I urge you to ethically reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divesting interest in the BPD, and investing social services and education programs, effective at the beginning of FY 2021. Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health, shows our commitment to communities and the vision that all Baltimore residents deserve to thrive. Historically, the city government has spent far more on police than on public health, homeless services, youth services, and other vital agencies. It's time to defund the BPD's harmful expansion into homeless services, schools, youth services, mental health, and other social services where police don't belong. It's time to protect investments in human services, the social safety net, and racial and economic justice. I am writing to insist that the upcoming BBMR budget hearings for FY 2021 reflect the voices and needs of Baltimore's citizens. I am asking that city officials lobby intense care, attention and effort towards finding sustainable, long term change.

Thank you,
Rita
