Hello,

I urge you to keep these following issues in mind moving forwards and consider ways to better allocate the city budget.

I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)

Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)

Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270)

Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541)

Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000)

Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)

Board of Elections (-$190,470)

Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)

Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)

Park programs and events (-$122,912)

Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)

Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

Sincerely,
Edmond

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Emily Plumb. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,

Dear Ms. Currin,

I am a Baltimore City resident and I am deeply concerned about the proposed budget. I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

- Park programs and events (-$122,912)
- Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)
- Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments. Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health, shows our commitment to communities and the vision that all Baltimore residents deserve to thrive.

Historically, the city government has spent far more on police than on public health, homeless services, youth services, and other vital agencies. It's time to defund the BPD's harmful expansion into homeless services, schools, youth services, mental health, and other social services where police don't belong. It's time to protect investments in human services, the social safety net, and racial and economic justice. I am writing to insist that the upcoming BBMR budget hearings for FY 2021 reflect the voices and needs of Baltimore's citizens. I am asking that city officials lobby intense care, attention and effort towards finding sustainable, long term change.

Sincerely,

Maria Rosita Valencia

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Sam Heald. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Sam Heald

Good morning,

I'm writing in the hope that the Baltimore City Council will vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to our city's police force.

Based on 1) both long passed and recent history, and 2) the current national situation, evidence would suggest that these funds might best serve the city if routed in other directions.

The status quo has lent support to the terrorizing of our neighbors and communities, and it is no longer acceptable to the citizens of Baltimore.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

- Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)
- Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)
- Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270)
- Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541)
- Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000)
- Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)
- Board of Elections (-$190,470)
- Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)
- Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)
- Park programs and events (-$122,912)
- Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)
- Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I would like to believe that my representatives, in light of the clear imbalances, would unite to redistribute the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to any/all of the above departments.

Sincerely,

Hannah Spangler

Dear Councilman Ed Reisinger,

I call on the Baltimore City Council to reject the proposed increase to the BPD budget. Instead, work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

As a licensed clinical social worker in Baltimore City, Maryland, I work with individuals every day that would be better served and have an opportunity at long-term success if they had more access to housing and community resources. We need to fund more mobile mental health services to avoid abuse of vulnerable individuals and to adequately refer people to services and care. BPD is beyond reform and cannot be used as a fix-all for community issues. Housing, food, jobs, EDUCATION, arts, emotional support. These are the things that make a human being thrive.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

- Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)
- Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)

- Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)
- Board of Elections (-$190,470)
- Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)
- Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)
- Park programs and events (-$122,912)
- Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)
- Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

In addition, I ask that the 6/12 hearing on the police budget be postponed or the deadline for submitting testimony extended so more people can participate in this crucial process.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Anna Goings. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Anna Goings

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Meg Masseron. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,

Meg Masseron

My name is Cindy. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Cindy Li

My name is Celease and I am a Baltimore resident.

In the mist of this pandemic and public outcry against policy brutality, it feels inappropriate than ever to propose increased BPD budget from $530 million to $545 million. I urge you to ethically reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divesting interest in the BPD, and investing in social services and education programs, effective in the beginning of FY 2021. Investment in programs such as The Affordable Housing trust fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Sage Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development or the Department of Health, shows our commitment to communities and the vision that all Baltimore residence deserve to thrive. Historically, the city government has spent far more on police than public health, homeless services, youth services, and other vital agencies.

It's time to defund the BPD's harmful expansion into homeless services, schools, youth services, mental health, and other social services where police do not belong. It's time to protect investments in human services, the social safety net, and racial and economic justice.

I am writing to insist that the upcoming BBMR budget hearings for FY 2021 reflect the voices and needs of Baltimore citizens. I am asking that city officials lobby intense care, attention and effort towards funding sustainable, long term change.

Best,

Celease Jordan

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Kory Albert Johnson. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Kory Johnson

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Evelyn Lawhorn, and I'm a resident of Hampden. If the local and national protests over the last two weeks have demonstrated anything to public officials, it is that police terrorize and brutalize the communities they are supposedly entrusted to protect and serve.

The spectacular failure of the Gun Trace Task Force, which gave BPD the power to run roughshod over the city at the expense of the life and liberty of innocent citizens, and the 2015 murder of Freddie Grey by BPD are just a couple of the most notable examples of gross abuse of power exercised by the Baltimore Police Department. They are by no means isolated incidents, and speak to the culture of violence, racism, and corruption that exists within BPD. Enabling this police presence not only actively endangers the community, but diverts funds from programs that impact the city in a positive and meaningful way.

For these reasons I believe it is unconscionable and runs directly counter to the interests of the citizens of this city to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I am urging you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, DEFUND the BPD, and instead invest those funds in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investing these funds in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, and the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

The people of this city deserve an investment in our future, not in the people that brutalize is. Please do the right thing.

Sincerely,
Evelyn Lawhorn

Dear Marguerite Currin, Council President Brandon M. Scott & Councilperson,

I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)

Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)

Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270)

Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541)

Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000)

Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)

Board of Elections (-$190,470)

Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)

Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)

Park programs and events (-$122,912)

Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)

Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

Sincerely,

Hayley McNutt

Subject: Baltimore City FY21 Budget Comments

Dear Council President Brandon M. Scott & Councilperson,

I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to route these funds toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several essential departments that better serve the public, including:

- Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)
- Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)
- Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270)
- Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541)
- Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000)
- Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)
- Board of Elections (-$190,470)
- Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)
- Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)
- Park programs and events (-$122,912)
- Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)
- Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Hays Murray

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Isabelle Erich. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Isabelle Erich

These funds should be reallocated into building up our education system instead of militarizing our school systems. These funds should be reallocating for strengthening city public health services and mental health services. These funds should NOT be used to further develop police programs and trainings that are deemed harmful and violent (choke hold training, etc.). These types of programs are violent and only foster violence within the city. Defund the police so that city residents can rebuild their lives instead of being thrown into a jail cell and left. Incarceration is NOT a restorative system within the city. It is not helping our city to restore and rebuild, it only further fosters violence. Defund the police!

I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Kendrea Chiosi

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Chris Black. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,

Chris Black
