4 “Subtitle 8.1. In Rem Foreclosure – Vacant and Abandoned Property”
5 Baltimore City Code
6 (Edition 2000)

7 Recitals

8 Whereas, thousands of vacant and abandoned structures and lots cause and contribute to 9 blight in Baltimore’s neighborhoods and communities;

10 Whereas, the owners of these vacant and abandoned properties often fail to pay taxes, fees, 11 and other municipal charges for which they are responsible, resulting in the unmarketability of 12 these properties, in part because the municipal liens come to exceed the properties’ value;

13 Whereas, the City’s annual tax sale, being a mechanism for the collection of unpaid liens
14 where the tax lien certificates are marketable, is not designed to address the problem of vacancy
15 and abandonment;

16
17 Whereas, on February 20, 2019, the Baltimore City Council passed resolution 19-0140R, 18 urging the Maryland General Assembly and Governor to enact legislation to allow Baltimore
19 City to pursue in rem foreclosure against abandoned and vacant properties;

20 Whereas, the City’s partners in nonprofit and community development organizations worked 21 with City officials, the Maryland General Assembly, and the Governor to enact on April 30, 22 2019, an enabling law to allow the counties and the City of Baltimore to create an in rem
23 foreclosure process whereby the City and other jurisdictions may forego the annual tax sale and 24 instead initiate and prosecute in rem foreclosure of certain vacant and abandoned properties 25 through circuit court proceedings;

26 Whereas, the Mayor and City Council wishes to provide the City with every possible tool to 27 eliminate blight in Baltimore's neighborhoods and communities and, therefore, wishes to provide 28 for in rem foreclosure against qualifying vacant and abandoned properties throughout the City;

29 Whereas, tax lien certificates issued in the annual tax sale expire if no case to foreclose the 30 right of redemption is filed within 2 years, but tax delinquent properties are placed in the tax sale
31 every 3 years, leaving a 1-year gap during which foreclosure based on the liens accumulated 32 against vacant and abandoned properties is impossible, effectively shielding roughly one-third of 33 all vacant and abandoned properties from foreclosure at any given time; and

34 Whereas, an in rem foreclosure process would allow the City to acquire vacant and 35 abandoned properties outside of the normal tax sale cycle, while still observing all the due 36 process and redemption rights of the owners and other parties with an interest in the properties.

37 SECTION 1. BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE, That the 38 Laws of Baltimore City read as follows:

Council Bill 20-0529
