Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Erin McGoff. I am a homeowner in Fells Point.

In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Erin

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Katie Kursch. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,

Dear Marguerite Currin, my name is Asmaa Maqsood and I am a Baltimore resident. In the midst of this pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it feels more inappropriate than ever to propose increases to the BPD budget from $530 Million to $545 million. I urge you to ethically reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divesting interest in the BPD, and investing social services and education programs, effective at the beginning of FY 2021. Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health, shows our commitment to communities and the vision that all Baltimore residents deserve to thrive. Historically, the city government has spent far more on police than on public health, homeless services, youth services, and other vital agencies. It's time to defund the BPD's harmful expansion into homeless services, schools, youth services, mental health, and other social services where police don't belong. It's time to protect investments in human services, the social safety net, and racial and economic justice. I am writing to insist that the upcoming BBMR budget hearings for FY 2021 reflect the voices and needs of Baltimore's citizens that includes all citizens. I am asking that city officials lobby intense care, attention and effort towards finding sustainable, long term change for all of our community. We demand change now.

Thank you
Asmaa Maqsood

Dear Mayor Young,

We are in a crazy time. The president has stopped bullying with words and started bullying with troops and unchecked violence. My name is Wiatt Hinton. The time for budget proposals has come and in the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021. We need more money to social services because they support the entire system. The money taken away from the police will make the police's job easier in the long run. I do not think you should drastically reduce it, just get enough money over to the places that need it more. In addition, to change the budget allocation to escalation training.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety. This will help our community! A place I grew up and care about. I am not even black and cannot imagine how hard it is for black people to see this struggle and murder committed everyday. It is terrible and painful. This is a city that can be grand, great, amazing. It can become a city that is a destination. And fixing or society will enable that. Thank you.

Best,
Wiatt Hinton

I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

By reallocating only 5% of the BOD budget you could double what we spend on children and families. That kind of investment will do more to reduce crime and increase positive outcomes for residents than spending on incarceration.

Dear Council Members,

My name is Sai Pinni. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Sai Pinni

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety; and will likely result in a decrease in crime in the city. These reforms are essential in really tackling the heart of the issue that has troubled our nation since the civil rights movement and the abolition of slavery. More violence, more punishers, more fear is not the answer. Resources where the city of Baltimore needs them and social reform is the answer.

Best, Kaylee Wilson

Dear Council President Brandon M. Scott & Councilwoman Mary Pat Clarke,
I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities. The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)
Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)
Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270)
Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541)
Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000)
Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)
Board of Elections (-$190,470)
Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)
Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)
Park programs and events (-$122,912)
Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)
Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

Sincerely,

BGB

Dear Marguerite,

I'm here after seeing a ridiculous statistic about Baltimore City's general funding and how the funding for the police easily is 3.5x more than ALL other agencies/departments in the city. I am here to express my opinion urging a call to change on how much is being allocated to the police and wish that some of that money would be put in other areas that would benefit from that money so much more such as Civil Rights, Homeless Services, Art & Culture, even Health.

Thank you for listening to what I have to say. Have a nice day and please be safe out there.

Sincerely,
Daniel Giangrandi

Dear Council President Brandon M. Scott

I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)
Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)
Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270)
Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541)
Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000)
Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)
Board of Elections (-$190,470)
Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)
Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)
Park programs and events (-$122,912)
Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)
Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

Sincerely,

Megan Zhang

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Inyoung Kang. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Inyoung

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Katie Lewis. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Katie Lewis
