Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Jordan Tisaranni. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,

Jordan Tisaranni

Hello,

I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)

Housing and Community Development (-$227,023) Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270) Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541) Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000) Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749) Board of Elections (-$190,470) Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243) Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906) Park programs and events (-$122,912) Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806) Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488) I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments. What are you, as a Baltimore City Council Member going to do to make sure this money goes into harm reduction and our Baltimore Communities, instead of to the police?

Sincerely,
Deepa Saharia

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Asna Ali. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Asna Ali

Dear Baltimore City Council,

I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities.

The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:

Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)
Housing and Community Development (-$227,023)
Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270)
Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541)
Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000)
Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749)
Board of Elections (-$190,470)
Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243)
Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906)
Park programs and events (-$122,912)
Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806)
Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488)

I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

Sincerely,

Alex Szydelski

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Natalie Lee. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Natalie Lee

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Claudia Xie. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Claudia Xie

Dear Mayor Young & staff

My name is Francesca Plovan. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is reprehensible to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. PLEASE reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, and invest in social services and education programs, instead of the BPD.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a lasting impact on public health and safety of the children of Baltimore.

Passionately,

Francesca Plovan, a child of Baltimore.

Hello,

I call on the Baltimore City Council to vote against the proposed FY 2020-21 Baltimore Police Department budget and instead work to implement significant and permanent reductions to this department. These funds should be routed toward the development of harm reduction systems that do not terrorize our neighbors and communities. The proposed BPD FY21 Budget is $549,959,519. This is an increase of $13,583,042 compared to FY20. The Budget also calls for cuts to several departments that better serve the public, including:
Affordable Housing (-$3,535,819)
Housing and Community Development (-$227,023) Homeless Prevention and Support Services for the Homeless (-$641,270) Outreach to the homeless (-$1,971,541) Enoch Pratt Free Library (-$350,000) Youth and Trauma Services (-$10,749) Board of Elections (-$190,470) Environmental Inspection Services (-$50,243) Chronic Disease Prevention (-$252,906) Park programs and events (-$122,912) Public right of way cleaning (-$686,806) Events Art Culture and Films (-$442,488) I call on the City Council to cancel the BPD budget increase of $13.5 million and allocate it to the above departments.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Lidia Hernandez. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Lidia

Dear Mayor Young,

My name is Aris Williams. In the midst of a pandemic and public outcry against police brutality, it is inappropriate to propose increases to the Baltimore Police Department budget. I urge you to reallocate the Baltimore City Expense Budget, divest interest in the BPD, and invest in social services and education programs, effective for FY 2021.

Investment in programs such as the BALTIMORE CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS, Affordable Housing Trust Fund, Baltimore Children and Youth Fund, Safe Streets Baltimore, the Office of Employment and Development, or the Department of Health will have a measurable and lasting impact on public health and safety.

Best,
Aris Williams
