Re: City Council Bill 15-0476 – Zoning – Conditional Use Conversion of a 1-Family Dwelling Unit to a 2-Family Dwelling Unit in the R-7 Zoning District – 2515 Brookfield Avenue

Dear President and City Council Members:

The Law Department has reviewed City Council Bill 15-0476 for form and legal sufficiency. The bill permits the conversion of a 1-family dwelling unit to a 2-family dwelling unit at 2515 Brookfield Avenue, which is in an R-7 Zoning District. Such conversions are permitted in an R-7 District only by ordinance. Zoning Code of Baltimore City (“ZC”), §§3-305(b)(2), 14-102(2). This is the requisite ordinance to permit this change, for which there are no legal impediments.

The Staff Report from the Planning Department (Report) states that, applying the Title 14 considerations for conditional uses, the proposed use of the structure as a 2-family dwelling “would be consistent with residential use in the area, would not be detrimental to or endanger public health, security, general welfare, or morals; and would enable constructive re-use of a vacant structure that still retains some historic integrity as a contributing structure in one of Baltimore’s historic districts.” Report at 2.

In addition, certain procedures must be followed for any conditional use, including conversions to additional dwelling units. See ZC § 3-305(c) (requirements of Title 14 apply); ZC §§14-208; 16-101(c)(2), 16-101(d)(1) (conditional use is a type of legislative authorization); ZC §16-203, 16-402 (notice and posting requirements); ZC §16-301 et. seq. (referral to certain City agencies, which are obligated to review the bill in a specified manner); ZC §16-403 (limitations on the City Council’s ability to amend the bill); see also Md. Land Use Code Ann., §10-303.

This bill is the appropriate method for the City Council to review the facts and make the determination as to whether the legal standard for a conditional use conversion has been met. Assuming all procedural requirements have or will be satisfied, the Law Department approves the bill for form and legal sufficiency.
