REFERRED TO THE FOLLOWING AGENCIES: Health Department, Police Department, Department of Recreation and Parks, Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, Office of Employment Development, Baltimore City Public School System, Youth Commission

A RESOLUTION ENTITLED

1 A COUNCIL RESOLUTION concerning

2 Inter-Agency Violent Crime Reduction Strategy

3 FOR the purpose of requesting members of the Mayor's Cabinet, including the Baltimore City
4 Police Commissioner, the Baltimore City Health Commissioner, the Director of Recreation 5 and Parks, the Director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, the Director of the 6 Mayor's Office of Employment Development, and the Chief Executive Officer of the 7 Baltimore City Public School System, with coordinated assistance from the Director of the 8 Family League of Baltimore, to combine the unique resources of each agency to develop an 9 interactive, inter-agency strategy to address health, criminal justice, recreation, employment,
10 and other socio-economic issues confronting Baltimore City youth in a comprehensive 11 response to the factors that contribute to or facilitate acts of violence by or upon our City's 12 most vulnerable citizens.

13 Recitals

14 In an effort to combat the troubling incidents of violence, especially that attributed to youth, 15 several City agencies have tailored programs to deal specifically with the needs of juveniles and 16 to provide them an outlet for socialization that steers them away from gangs and gang-related 17 criminal activity. The Inter-Agency Violent Crime Reduction Strategy will incorporate these 18 existing programs in a comprehensive strategy based on an analysis of the location and 19 availability of youth programs compared to the likely presence of at-risk youth and will include a 20 studied response that bridges the gap between the delivery of available resources and the needs 21 of this population.

22 The Baltimore City Health Department's Office of Youth Violence Prevention is dedicated 23 to combating the epidemic of violence among the City's youth through innovative public health
24 programming. The Office operates 3 programs: Operation Safe Kids; Multi-systemic Therapy; 25 and Operation Safe Streets. The Department also works closely with communities, State and 26 local agencies, and public health experts on departmental programs and city-wide, anti-violence
27 initiatives, including the Baltimore City Gang Violence Reduction Plan.

28 The Department of Recreation and Park's Spring/Summer Recreation Guide offers many 29 opportunities for Baltimore's youth and their families to join in a summer of safe and healthy

1 pursuits. At the recreation centers, campers reunite for yet another season of creativity and fun.
2 Adventures also await at the Carrie Murray Nature Center’s nature camp, where children explore
3 the great outdoors and learn to protect the environment, and, as part of the Therapeutic Division, 4 Camp Variety concentrates more on “possibilities” than on its participants’ disabilities. The 5 Division of Youth and Adult Sports promotes the whole individual, good sportsmanship, and an 6 environment that is both fun and competitive.

7 The Baltimore Police Department’s Community Affairs officers have been deployed to high 8 crime areas, focusing on truancy and curfew enforcement in a concentrated effort to reduce 9 juvenile crime and victimization. Using the Inter-Agency Violent Crime Reduction Strategy, the 10 Police Department will enhance these efforts by working closely with the School Police and the 11 Mass Transit Police forces to create a safe zone for children in the hours before students arrive at 12 school and after they leave the structured environment of the school facility.

13 Specifically, the above mentioned agencies, through regular meetings, are requested to map 14 out enforcement areas where truancy rates are high and apply the program(s) that will best meet 15 the needs of the youth in that area. Moreover, a comprehensive plan should be developed that 16 applies the best program(s) to meet the different scenarios of at-risk youth. Different scenarios
17 should include length of truancy, level of parental involvement, repeat juvenile offenders, as well
18 as any other indicia of an at-risk youth. Conversely, the agencies are also requested to develop a 19 coordinated strategy to market their collective programs so that they reach the largest possible 20 number of all youth, not just those who are considered at-risk. The ultimate goal should be to 21 provide after-school and recreational activities that offer a meaningful and, equally as important, 22 safe outlet for every possible Baltimore youth.

23 The agencies encompassed by the Inter-Agency Violent Crime Reduction Strategy have an 24 impressive record of understanding and dealing with the particular social, psychological, 25 emotional, and physical activity needs of the growing teen. Increased interagency meetings and 26 cooperation will create a targeted response to these youth and result in a more effective outcome
27 in bridging the geographical and strategic gaps that remain in the delivery of services. A pooling 28 of their resources will result in a proactive program that can go far to make certain that 29 Baltimore’s coming “long hot” summer is one of safety, fun, and learning for all.

30 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE, That this 31 Body hereby requests members of the Mayor’s Cabinet, including the Baltimore City Police 32 Commissioner, the Baltimore City Health Commissioner, the Director of Recreation and Parks, 33 the Director of the Mayor’s Office of Criminal Justice, the Director of the Mayor’s Office of 34 Employment Development, and the Chief Executive Officer of the Baltimore City Public School 35 System, with coordinated assistance from the Director of the Family League of Baltimore, to 36 combine the unique resources of each agency to develop an interactive, inter-agency strategy to 37 address health, criminal justice, recreation, employment, and other socio-economic issues 38 confronting Baltimore City youth in a comprehensive response to the factors that contribute to or 39 facilitate acts of violence by or upon our City’s most vulnerable citizens.

40 AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Mayor, the 41 Police Commissioner, the Health Commissioner, the Director of Recreation and Parks, the 42 Director of the Mayor’s Office of Criminal Justice, the Director of the Mayor’s Office of 43 Employment Development, the CEO of the Baltimore City Public School System, the Director of 44 the Family League of Baltimore, and the Mayor’s Legislative Liaison to the City Council.
