

Dear City Council,

In June 2015, Keith Davis Jr was misidentified as a robbery suspect by four BPD officers who chased him into an enclosed garage and shot at him dozens of times. He was acquitted of the robbery after a trial in which the robbery victim testified that Keith wasn't the person who had committed it. The police and Marilyn Mosby's office then claimed that a gun found near Keith in that garage had been used to murder Kevin Jones several hours earlier that same day.

It was determined that:

- The gun was never fired that day.
- There is no DNA link between Keith Davis Jr. and Kevin Jones.
- One of the officers who shot Keith was even investigated by the FBI for interstate drug trafficking.

Despite these glaring problems with the case, Marilyn Mosby has chosen to repeatedly prosecute him. These trials have resulted in two mistrials and two overturned guilty verdicts. These trials have also cost taxpayers over a million dollars without being able to render an ounce of justice. From the cost of judges, witnesses, DNA (which was outsourced by the state), police officers, court clerks, bailiffs, law clerks, utilities and operations, and juror payments - Baltimore residents are directly paying for the unjust prosecution of a police brutality victim. Taxpayers must challenge this abuse of power and understand that silence implicates us all.

On May 13, 2021, Keith Davis Jr. was granted a new trial, making way for him to be tried a fifth time. Please call on Marilyn Mosby and the Baltimore State's Attorney Office to drop the charges against Keith Davis Jr. and not continue with a fifth trial.

Thank you,
Mekdes A Sisay
