Analysis

Current Law

Article 13 - Housing and Urban Renewal; Section 2-6; Baltimore City Code; (Edition 2000)

Background

Urban Renewal Plans (URP), which are adopted by the Mayor and City Council, set forth redevelopment goals, design guidelines, land use restrictions, as well as authority for property acquisition and disposition. URPs are often used to generate financing for community improvements and the creation of jobs and income.

The Maryland Annotated Code requires all Urban Renewal Plans (URPs) that have designated properties for acquisition and disposition that have not yet been acted upon to be expressly confirmed and reauthorized every four years, for the life of the URP. The Coldstream Homestead Montebello Urban Renewal Plan was established in 1977 via Ordinance 77-289 and last amended via ordinance 18-129. Any changes to the URP must be approved by the Mayor and City Council.

Bill 22-0279 proposes to amend the current URP to:

- allow acquisition of certain properties within the project area for an additional four years, which is through and including December 31, 2026; and
- provide for a special effective date.
