Subtitle 3. Variances.

§ 5-301. Purpose.

(a) In general.

The purpose of the variance procedure is to afford a property owner relief from certain regulations of [the Zoning Code] this Code when [unnecessary hardship or] practical difficulty exists.

(b) Application.

[The variance procedure applies only to changes in bulk and yard regulations and changes in signage, parking, and loading requirements. It does not apply to changes in the uses, the maximum quantity of signs, the location requirements of signs, or the types of signs allowed within a zoning district.] The Zoning Administrator or the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals may grant variances or modifications from the provisions of this Code pursuant to the standards set forth in this subtitle.

(c) The variance procedure provisions set forth in this subtitle shall not be construed to permit the Zoning Administrator or the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals to authorize a use of land not otherwise permitted under the guise of a variance.

§ 5-302. Minor and major variances distinguished.

(a) In general.

This Code allows for 2 types of variances that may be granted under this subtitle, minor variances and major variances.

(b) Minor variances.

(1) Minor variances comprise the following specified variances:

- (i) a reduction in lot width by no more than [10%] 25% of the applicable minimum lot width requirements;
- (ii) a reduction in required yards and setbacks by no more than [10%] 25% [or 2 feet, whichever is less];
- (iii) a reduction in the number of off-street parking spaces by no more than [10%] 25% of the applicable minimum requirements;
- (iv) a reduction in the required alley width for access to off-street parking; [and]
- (v) a variance to bulk or yard regulations if:
  - (A) the parcel of land is improved with a nonconforming structure that has been in existence for at least 50 years;
  - (B) the variance would not permit more than a [10%] 25% cumulative increase in the bulk and density of a structure that has been in existence for 50 or more years; and
  - (C) in the opinion of the Zoning Administrator, the application complies with all applicable approval criteria for variances[.]; and
- (vi) a variance to bulk or yard regulations if:
  - (A) the variance application involves an owner occupied property within a residential zoning district; and
  - (B) the legal owner of the property submits a notarized affidavit attesting to the fact that they own and occupy the residential property.

(2) The Zoning Administrator or the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals may grant minor variances from the regulations of this Code.

§ 5-308. Approval standards.

(a) Required finding of [unnecessary hardship or] practical difficulty.

[In order to] To grant a variance, the Zoning Administrator, the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals, or the City Council, as the case may be, must find that, because of the conditions peculiar to the property, including particular physical surroundings, shape, or typographical conditions of the specific structure or land involved, or because of exceptional circumstances related to the specific structure or land involved, [an unnecessary hardship or] a practical difficulty, as distinguished from a mere inconvenience, would result if the strict letter of the applicable requirement were carried out.

(b) Other required findings.

The Zoning Administrator, the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals, or the City Council, as the case may be, must also find that:

- [(1) the conditions on which the application is based are unique to the property for which the variance is sought and are not generally applicable to other property within the same zoning classification;]
- (1) [(2)] the [unnecessary hardship or] practical difficulty is caused by this Code and has not been created by the intentional action or inaction of any person who has a present interest in the property;
- (2) [(3)] the purpose of the variance is not based exclusively on a desire to increase the value or income potential of the property;
- (3) [(4)] the variance will not:
  - (i) be injurious to the use and enjoyment of other property in the immediate vicinity; or
  - (ii) substantially diminish and impair property values in the neighborhood;
- (4) [(5)] the variance is not precluded by and will not adversely affect:
  - (i) any Urban Renewal Plan;
  - (ii) the City’s Comprehensive Master Plan; or
  - (iii) any Historical and Architectural Preservation District; and
- (5) [(6)] the variance will not otherwise:
  - (i) be detrimental to or endanger the public health, safety, or welfare; or
  - (ii) be in any way contrary to the public interest.

§ 5-309. [Expiration of approval] Time limit for utilization of variance; Extensions.

(a) Exercise [within year] of approval required.

A variance lapses and becomes void [1] 2 years from the date of its final [approval] order granting same, unless a use permit under this Code and an occupancy permit under the Baltimore City Building Code [substantial construction has] have been obtained [occurred within that year].

(b) Extension by BMZA.

The Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals may grant an extension of this period for both minor and major variances, on written application and for good cause shown, without notice or hearing.

Subtitle 4. Conditional Uses.

§ 5-407. [Expiration of approval] Time limit for utilization of conditional use; Extensions.

(a) Exercise [within year] of approval required.

A conditional use and a conditional sign approval lapses and becomes void in [1] 2 years from the date of its final [approval] order granting same unless, within that [year] period:

- (2) the erection or alteration of a structure for that use has lawfully begun;
- (3) the use has lawfully begun; or
