Title: Informational Hearing and Roundtable Discussion on Developments Affecting the Education of Older Teens and Young Adults in Baltimore City

FOR the purpose of assessing the status and efficiency of Maryland's GED program in Baltimore City; determining the impact of Senate Bill 362's increase to 18 of the age for mandatory education in Maryland and the local school system's "adult education" plans to attract, retain and successfully educate these older students; and examining the State's blueprint for adopting a GED Options Program in response to the SB 362 mandate.
