Section 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Laws of Baltimore City read as follows:

Baltimore City Revised Code

Article - General Provisions

Title 4. Administrative Procedure Act - Regulations

Subtitle 3. Notice and Comment Period; Adoption

§ 4-302. Effect of notice.

Publication of the notice required [under] by this subtitle:

- (1) creates a rebuttable presumption that the proposed regulation was adopted properly;
and
- (2) is deemed to give a person who is subject to or affected by the proposed regulation notice of the contents of the proposed regulation.

§ 4-303. Review by Committee.

(c) Scope of review.

In its review under this section, the Committee shall consider whether the proposed regulation:

- (1) [is in conformity] conforms with the statutory authority of the agency; and
- (2) reasonably complies with the legislative intent of the statute under which the regulation was proposed.

§ 4-305. Emergency regulations.

(b) Temporary regulations.

(3) Expiration.

- (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, any temporary regulation adopted under this section expires and no longer has legal effect on the 90th day after the state of emergency has been lifted.
- (ii) If, within the 90 days after a state of emergency has been lifted, an agency submits a temporary regulation to the City Solicitor as set forth in § 4-204 {"Submission to Solicitor"} of this title and otherwise follows the notice and publication procedures set forth in this title to adopt that regulation as permanent, the regulation [may] does not expire as stated in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph.

Subtitle 4. Codification

§ 4-404. Removal of obsolete provisions.

(a) In general.

With the approval of the City Solicitor, an agency may request that the Director remove from the Code:

- (1) a part of a regulation that has been held unconstitutional by a court of competent final jurisdiction; or
- (2) a regulation whose specific enabling law has been repealed [by the Mayor and City Council].

(b) Reason for removal.

The requesting agency shall state with particularity [the reason for] why the regulation is obsolete and, if approved for removal by the City Solicitor, the Director shall include that reason as an annotation within the Code.

§ 4-405. Severability.

If a section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of a regulation is declared unconstitutional or invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the unconstitutionality or invalidity [may] does not affect [any of] any remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words unless:

- (1) the regulation is subject to a provision that prohibits severability; or
- (2) the court finds that the remaining valid provisions alone are incomplete and incapable of being carried out in accordance with the regulation's purpose.

Article 13. Housing and Urban Renewal

Subtitle 2. Department of Housing and Community Development

§ 2-1. Determinations, declarations, and definitions.

(c) Definitions.

(1) Slum, blighted, or deteriorated area.

As used herein, a slum, blighted, or deteriorated area is an area in which:

- (i) a preponderance of the structures or the dwelling units therein is detrimental to the public health, safety, or general welfare by reason of age, dilapidation, depreciation, overcrowding, excessive land coverage, faulty arrangement, lack of ventilation or sanitary facilities, failure to conform with the provisions of the ordinances or regulatory codes of the City of Baltimore relating to buildings, housing, or sanitation, neighborhood obsolescence or deterioration, or inadequate open space, parking, or access to transportation; or*

§ 2-3. General powers.

(a) Enumerated.

The Department of Housing and Community Development is authorized to:

...

(7) engage in studies, experimentation, and research pertaining to housing, community development, and the existence of and the problems of correcting, eliminating, and preventing slums, blight, and urban deterioration; disseminate public information with respect thereto, and cooperate with other agencies of the City, the State, the Federal Government, or any agency thereof, in activities undertaken in connection therewith;

(11) assist the several City departments involved in activities related to housing and community development for the purpose of coordinating such activities and establishing consistent policies and procedures with respect thereto; and

....

Subtitle 3. Human Services Division

§ 3-1. Declaration of policy and findings of fact.

(a) In general.

The City Council finds that:

...

(4) many of said impoverished persons and families are dependent upon public subsidy for their subsistence; and

....

(b) Program of concerted action needed.

The City Council further finds that:

(1) to eliminate the causes of poverty and the problems attendant upon it, it is imperative for the City of Baltimore to engage in a total program of concerted community action which will harness and synchronize its resources for remedial education, job training, health care, environmental improvement, social and physical rehabilitation, and training in home management and healthy family living; and

Subtitle 6. Tenant's Right of First Refusal

§ 6-1. Statement of public policy and purpose.

It is the intent and purpose of this [law] subtitle that before title to any single-family residential rental property is voluntarily transferred, the tenant of that property shall have the opportunity to purchase the property on terms accepted as reasonable in the residential real estate market; and that residential property owners shall not be unreasonably impeded in selling their properties nor required to accept unreasonable terms of sale.

§ 6-2. Definitions.

(a) Landlord.

As used in this [law] subtitle, "landlord" means an owner, lessor, sublessor, assignee, any agent thereof, or any other person receiving or entitled to receive rents or benefits for the use or occupancy of any residential rental unit within the City of Baltimore.

(b) Tenant.

(1)As used in this [law] subtitle, "tenant" means a tenant, subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person entitled to the possession, occupancy, or [the] benefits thereof, of any rental unit owned by another person, and who has resided therein for not less than 6 months.

(2)Where a rental unit had been occupied by a tenant at any time during the preceding 6 months, the last such tenant to occupy the unit shall be considered a present tenant for purposes of this [law] subtitle.

(3)Provided however that no tenant who has been summarily ejected for non-payment of rent pursuant to Subtitle 9 of the Public Local Laws of Baltimore City from a single-family rental property shall be entitled by this subtitle to a right of first refusal for that property.

§ 6-3. Tenant's right of first refusal.

Before a voluntary transfer of title to a single-family rental residential property may occur, the tenant of that property shall have the right of first refusal to purchase the property. Such right shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this [law] subtitle.

§ 6-4. Exercise of right of first refusal.

(a) In general.

(4) Following notification by the tenant, as above, of the intent to exercise that right of first refusal, the landlord must tender to the tenant within 10 days an executed contract of sale for said property on the same terms and conditions as indicated in the offer of sale or the third-party contract, with the exception of any term or condition which is inconsistent with the provisions of this subtitle, in which instance the contract shall specify terms consistent with those provisions, and provided further that the contract shall be consistent with an indication made by the tenant pursuant to paragraph (3) above, as to the use of a particular government program of mortgage insurance, guarantee, or financing.

(b) Sale to other for less than offer.

(1) If the landlord enters into a sale contract with a third party after the expiration of the 30-day period in subsection (a) above and if the net proceeds of that sales contract are less in amount than the amount in the offer of sale to the tenant, or if the terms and conditions of that sales contract are materially more favorable to the buyer than those contained in the offer of sale to the tenant, as provided in subsection (a) above, then the tenant shall be notified of such contract in the manner provided for in subsection (a) above.

(2) The tenant shall then have the right to contract with the landlord in lieu of the third party, provided the proceeds of the tenant's offer to purchase are not less in amount than the offer of the third party. Said right shall be in effect for 15 days from the mailing of notification of the sales contract, unless the net proceeds of the third-party sales contract are less than 80% of the amount in the offer of sale to the tenant in subsection (a) above, or more than 6 months has elapsed since the offer to the tenant in subsection (a) above, in which case the tenant shall have the right for 30 days from the mailing of notification.

(3) A tenant shall exercise the right to contract in lieu of a third party pursuant to this [paragraph] subsection in the manner provided by [Paragraph] subsection (a)(3) of this section and where a tenant does so the provisions of [Paragraphs] subsections (a)(4) and (a)(5) shall apply.

(d) Contract without sale price in dollars.

(1) Where a landlord's contract with a third party, which is required by [Paragraph] subsection (a) or (b) above to be submitted to the tenant, fails to set forth the sale price in dollars of the individual property for which the tenant has the right of first refusal pursuant to this subtitle, then in the notice to the tenant of said contract the landlord shall set forth a dollar amount which as a cash price is equivalent to the consideration attributable to that property under the terms of the third-party contract.

§ 6-6. Miscellaneous.

(a) Any tenant will do.

(1) If a landlord enters into a sales contract with the tenant, as defined by this [law] subtitle, pursuant to the intent and requirements of this [law] subtitle, the landlord shall be deemed to be in compliance with this [law] subtitle, and to have met the requirements of this [law] subtitle even though such person is not the person with whom the landlord entered into a written or oral lease on the dwelling unit nor the sale occupant of the dwelling.

(c) Waivers – right to receive offer.

No tenant may waive his right to receive an offer of sale or notification as required by this [law] subtitle.

(d) Waivers – time periods.

(2) Any such waiver shall:

(i) be in writing and signed by the tenant; and

(ii) contain a statement, at the top of the waiver, that the tenant is under no obligation to sign such a waiver and cannot be evicted for refusal to sign the waiver.

(3) No landlord may evict a tenant for refusing to sign a waiver of the tenant's right under this [law] subtitle. Any waiver not in accordance with this [paragraph] subsection shall be null and void and of no effect.

§ 6-8. Penalties.

(b) Injunctive relief.

A tenant may seek relief from an appropriate court to restrain or enjoin any violation of the provisions of this [law] subtitle.

§ 6-9. Affidavit on transfers to third parties.

(a) Affidavit of compliance required.

In any transfer of real property subject to this [law] subtitle to a party other than a tenant, the owner shall file in the land records of Baltimore City an affidavit in the form set forth in [Paragraph] subsection (c) below, certifying that the requirements of this subtitle have been met, as a part of the deed conveyance.

(b) Transferee's rights protected.

Where an affidavit has been filed as provided by [paragraph] subsection (a) above, the rights and title of a third party transferee, his heirs, successors or assigns shall be free of any restriction or claim arising in favor of a tenant of said property under or through any provision of this subtitle.

(c) Statements required.

An affidavit affirming compliance with the requirements of this subtitle shall be filed as provided by [paragraph] subsection (a) above and shall incorporate one of the following statements as appropriate:

....

Subtitle 10. Condominiums

§ 10-2. Definitions.

(k) Rental facility.
