(a) “Minor irregularity” defined.

“Minor irregularity” means an irregularity that is merely a matter of form and not of substance or pertains to an immaterial or inconsequential defect or variation in a bid or proposal from the exact requirement of the solicitation, and the correction or waiver of the irregularity would not be prejudicial to other bidders.

(b) In general.

If a bid contains a minor irregularity, the Agent may choose to:

- (1) waive the minor irregularity if the Agent determines the it is advantageous for the City to do so;
or
- (2) allow the contractor to cure any deficiency resulting from the minor irregularity.

§ 47-4. Mistakes in Bids.

(a) Mistakes discovered before opening.

- (1) A bidder may correct mistakes discovered before the time and date set for bid opening by withdrawing or correcting the bid if the Agent receives written notice, or, in the case of bids that allow it, notice by electronic means, of the bidder’s desire to withdraw or correct the bid before the time and date set for bid opening.
- (2) If the bid is withdrawn in accordance with this subtitle, the Agent shall return any bid security to the bidder.
- (3) The Agent shall include all documents related to the modification or withdrawal of bids in the appropriate procurement file.

 - (iii) the bid is unreasonably lower than other submitted bids.
- (2) If the bidder alleges mistake, and upon written approval from the City Solicitor or the City Solicitor’s designee, the bidder may correct the intended bid or withdraw a low bid if the bidder submits proof which clearly demonstrates that a mistake was made.
- (3) Upon notification of a bidder’s mistake, the City Solicitor or the City Solicitor’s designee must reply with written approval or dissent within 1 business day.

(c) Mistakes discovered after bid.

Unless correction of the mistake results in a change in price, mistakes may be corrected after award of the contract if:

- (1) the Agent determines that it would be unconscionable not to allow the mistake to be corrected;
- (2) the Agent submits the needed corrections in writing to the City Solicitor; and
- (3) the City Solicitor, in writing, approves the corrections.
