Section 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Laws of Baltimore City read as follows:

Baltimore City Code

Article 28. Taxes

Subtitle 10. Credits

§ 10-17. High-performance market-rate rental housing - Targeted areas.

(d) Amount of credit.

(1) The amount of the credit shall equal a percentage, as specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection, of [the difference between]:

(i) if the property is still in the assessment cycle of the first assessment of the completed project following the issuance of an occupancy permit, the difference between the property tax liability that, but for the tax credit, [would be owed for the first full tax year on the first assessment after issuance of an occupancy permit for the completed project; and] is owed in the current year of the assessment cycle, and the total property tax liability on the assessed value of the property prior to the commencement of the project; or

- (ii) [the property tax liability that would have been owed if the project had not been made.] if the property is no longer in the assessment cycle of the first assessment of the completed project following the issuance of an occupancy permit, the difference between the property tax liability that, but for the tax credit, was owed in the final year of that assessment cycle, and the total property tax liability on the assessed value of the property prior to the commencement of the project.

(j) Administration.

The Director of Finance may:

- (1) adopt rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section, including procedures for granting partial credits for eligibility for less than a full taxable year;

§ 10-18. High-performance market-rate rental housing - Citywide.

(d) Amount of credit.

- (1) The amount of the credit shall equal a percentage, as specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection, of [the difference between]:

- (i) if the property is still in the assessment cycle of the first assessment of the completed project following the issuance of an occupancy permit, the difference between the property tax liability that, but for the tax credit, [would be owed for the first full tax year on the first assessment after issuance of an occupancy permit for the completed project; and] is owed in the current year of the assessment cycle, and the total property tax liability on the assessed value of the property prior to the commencement of the project; or
- (ii) [the property tax liability that would have been owed if the project had not been undertaken.] if the property is no longer in the assessment cycle of the first assessment of the completed project following the issuance of an occupancy permit, the difference between the property tax liability that, but for the tax credit, was owed in the final year of that assessment cycle, and the total property tax liability on the assessed value of the property prior to the commencement of the project.

(k) Administration.

The Director of Finance may:

- (1) adopt rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section, including procedures for granting partial credits for eligibility for less than a full taxable year;
